

Vivanco

BODEGA · FUNDACIÓN · EXPERIENCIAS
compartiendo cultura de vino

La segunda revolución agrícola. Origen y expansión de la arboricultura

The second agrarian revolution. Origin and spread of tree cultivation

25-26 de Octubre 2017/25th -26th October 2017

Museo de la Cultura del Vino. Fundación Vivanco. Briones (La Rioja)

Organizadores/Organizers:

Leonor Peña-Chocarro. Instituto de Historia. CCHS/CSIC

Guillem Pérez Jordà. Instituto de Historia. CCHS/CSIC

Fundación Vivanco para la Cultura del Vino

Proyecto/Project FRUITFUL. La introducción y el desarrollo de la arboricultura en la Península Ibérica (HAR2015-64953-P)

25 OCTUBRE/ 25th OCTOBER

9:00-9.30h Presentación/Introduction

9.30-10.30 Dorian Fuller, University College London. Placing the perennial land use and tree fruit domestication: comparisons from Mesopotamia, India and China.

10.30-11.30 Guillem Pérez-Jordà & Leonor Peña-Chocarro, IH. CSIC. Origin and expansion of arboriculture in the Iberian Peninsula.

11.30-12h CAFÉ/COFFEE BREAK

12:00-13:00 Laurent Bouby, CNRS. Fruits resources and the early steps of arboriculture in Southern France.

13-15.30 COMIDA/LUNCH Restaurante Los 4 Arcos (Briones)

15.30-16.30 Anna Maria Mercuri, Università degli Studi di Modena e Reggio Emilia. The history of tree cultivation in Italy based on pollen/archaeobotanical evidence: focus on Olea, Juglans and Castanea.

16.30-17.30 Dragana Filipovic, University of Kiel. Fruit procurement and consumption through time in the central and western Balkans

17.30-18.30 Soultana Maria Valamoti, Maria Ntinou & Clemence Pagnoux, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki & Aix-Marseille Université. Fruit Growing in Greece from the Neolithic to Hellenistic times: integrating archaeobotanical and textual evidence in the context of ERC project PLANTCULT

21:00 CENA /DINNER Restaurante Los Nietos (Briones)

26th OCTUBRE/ 26th OCTOBER

9:00-10:00 Elena Marinova, University of Leuven. Archaeobotanical perspective on the arboriculture in Eastern Europe: attempt for integration of on-site and off-site evidence

10:00-11:00 Jaromír Beneš, Jitka Kosňovská, Michaela Ptáková. University of South Bohemia. Edible trees from forest fields to fields of orchards. Arboriculture in Czech Republic and Slovakia according archaeobotanical and ethnobotanical knowledge

11:00-11.30 CAFÉ/COFFEE BREAK

11.30-12.30 Hans Peter Stika, Hohenheim University. History of cultivation of fruit species in western Central Europe (Austria, Germany and Switzerland).

12:30-13:30 Sabine Karg, Freie Universität Berlin. Fruit diversity in Northern Europe from the 5th millennium BC until the Early Modern Times.

13.30-15.30 COMIDA/LUNCH Restaurante Los 4 Arcos

15.30-16.30 Alexandra Livarda, University of Nottingham. Horticulture in Britain: a Roman legacy?

16.30-17:30 Meriel McClatchie, School of Archaeology, University College Dublin, Ireland. Arboriculture at the northern margins of Europe: insights from Ireland

21:00 CENA /DINNER Restaurante Los Nietos (Briones)

27th OCTUBRE/ 27th OCTOBER (timing to be decided)

Excursión/Field trip (half day)

Comida/Lunch

Visita a las bodegas y Museo del Vino de la Fundación Vivanco/Visit to wine cellars and Museum of the Fundación Vivanco

Dinner at restaurant Fundación Vivanco